Computing Key Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary
Adults	People who are fully grown and responsible for making decisions
Behaviour	The way people act, including their actions, words, and manner
Friends	People you trust and enjoy spending time with, who care about your well-being and happiness
Information	Facts, details, or knowledge about something
Kind	Being friendly, helpful, and considerate towards others
Online	Being connected to or accessed via the internet
Trust	Having confidence in someone's reliability, honesty, and ability

2

Key Vocabulary
Computer	An electronic device that has a screen, a keyboard, and a mouse to control it
Connected	Two or more things are joined or linked together
Headphones	A pair of small speakers that you wear over your ears to listen to sounds or music from a computer or other electronic devices.
Keyboard	A set of buttons or keys that you press with your fingers to type letters, numbers, and symbols into a computer or other electronic devices.
Monitor	A screen that displays information from a computer
Online	Being connected to or accessed via the internet
Printer	A machine that prints documents or images from a computer onto paper
Technology	Any tools or devices that people use to make or do things

3

Key Vocabulary
Backwards	Moving towards the back or ear
Camera	A device used to capture and record photographs or videos
Devices	Electronic items like tablets or iPads
Forwards	Moving in the direction ahead
Instructions	A set of steps or rules to follow
Play	To listen or watch a recording
Record	To capture sound or video
Robot	A machine that is programmed to carry out tasks automatically